

Procedure for filing a Statement of Interest in Prior Authorization transactions.

"In the event a written protest of the awarding of such a contract occurs during the seven-day notice period, DCF shall request from the protestor the contact information, including name and mailing address, of the person or entity that has expressed an interest in supplying the goods or services and provide a copy of the specification to the person or entity that has expressed an interest in supplying the goods or services and verify that such person or entity is interested and capable of supplying such goods or services. Upon satisfaction of DCF regarding the validity of the protest and the existence of competition, DCF shall proceed with a competitive procurement. A competitive procurement shall not be required when, in the judgment of the director of purchases, the validity of the protest cannot be determined or competition for such goods or services cannot be verified by the director of purchases."
